

Oxford in Bloom 2014

Best kept garden awards

Free to enter

Prizes from £25 to £100

Step 1 Complete and return entry form or online at:
www.oxford.gov.uk/oxfordinbloom

Step 2 Plant and look after your garden or container

Step 3 Get ready for judging in July

Step 4 Celebrate at the presentation evening

Oxford is a vibrant and colourful city and over the last 25 years Oxford in Bloom has been playing its part.

This year the competition is even easier to enter with simpler categories. There are fantastic prizes and a celebrity presentation evening.

Who can enter?

Whether you have a large or small garden, a planter or a hanging basket, as long as you live, have a business or are part of a community group within the City boundary, you are eligible to enter.

www.oxford.gov.uk/oxfordinbloom

<https://www.facebook.com/OxfordCityCouncil>

Enter one of the Oxford in Bloom categories:

Judging criteria

- ONE General Impression • Colour • Impact.
- TWO Cleanliness & tidiness • Plants dead headed
Absence of pests or diseases • Lack of weeds
Well maintained grass • Plants well watered.
- THREE Quality, choice, height and colour of plants, shrubs, trees.
- FOUR Arrangement • Design.

Residential

Please tick categories you wish to enter

- Best Kept Small Garden
- Best Kept Large Garden
- Most Beautiful Balcony
- Most Beautiful Container
(hanging basket, planter etc)
- Gardening for the Disabled
- Florence Park in Bloom

Business & Community

Please tick categories you wish to enter

- Display by Universities and Colleges
- Best Large Commercial Display
- Best Small Commercial Display

Junior
Oxford in Bloom 2014

- Under 16 School/Community Group

Fill in your details

Name:

Address:

Postcode:

Tel (home):

Tel (work):

Email:

Entry forms available at www.oxford.gov.uk/oxfordinbloom or local council office

Your completed entry form can be sent to parcs@oxford.gov.uk, dropped into your local council office or sent to Parks Development Officer, Cutteslowe Park, Oxford, OX2 8ES

The Competition is open to all residents and businesses within the Oxford City Boundary, with the exception of garden centres.

Closing dates – Schools: 29th June 2014 Main competition: 6th July 2014

Judging dates – Schools: w/c14th July 2014 Main competition: w/c 21st July 2014

You don't need to stay in on judging days, we just need access to garden/container.

The Judges decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into by the organisers.

£100 for 1st prize

£50 for 2nd prize

£25 for 3rd

(Residential and community categories only)

Certificates of Merit are awarded to all entries scoring over 65 points.

